About the USO

The USO lifts the spirits of America's troops and their families. For over 70 years the USO has been providing critical support to those who need us most through an extensive range of programs at more than 160 locations in 27 states and 14 countries. Our programs focus on forward-deployed troops, their families and children, our wounded warriors, and families of the fallen. With the ongoing war on terror, the USO is constantly changing and striving to meet the needs of all military members and their families. Not part of the U.S. Government, the USO relies on donations from individuals, organizations, and corporations to support its programs and services. Our story is one of honor, patriotism, duty, and dedication, as we work to convey the gratitude of the American people. It stands in recognition of those who serve and protect us and our freedom. Wherever and whenever they go, the USO will be there.

About this Event

This spring, "America's Orchestra" celebrates what unites us, the United States – the heart, imagination, and spirit of American musical traditions. Many of this season's spring Pops concerts will feature the "Visions of America Photo-Symphony," a stirring, multimedia work inspired by the striking images of photo-historian Joseph Sohm. Sohm's sweeping photographic portrait of American life is set to compelling music by the acclaimed Roger Kellaway and lyrics by world-renowned Alan and Marilyn Bergman. The groundbreaking multimedia project includes a recorded narration by Clint Eastwood, a youth chorus, and the winning images from Joseph Sohm's book Visions of America-Photographing Democracy.

The funds raised from this event will help the USO continue its programs to provide a home away from home for our troops, keep families connected, come to the aid for the families of the fallen and continue outreach programs that these service members deserve. With 90% of every dollar going to our programs and services, we will continue to bring the best in care and comfort to the remarkable men and women of our armed forces. Donated seating will allow service members to enjoy the performance and be part of this special evening. Together, we can make sure this generation of warriors knows their sacrifice is recognized and appreciated and let them know that 'no one left behind' is not just the dictate of our military, but of our entire nation.
